"The Barbadian Rum Shop" has a dual purpose: to document these special watering holes in photographs and to provide a historical and cultural background to a unique Barbadian institution. It should also encourage Barbadians and visitors alike to experience first hand the exuberant and authentic atmosphere of the Barbadian rum shop. The first section of the book is the fascinating story of rum: where it began, how it is made and the many ways you can drink it. The second gives an insight into the brewing of Barbados' prize-winning beer, Banks - probably the most consumed drink in the rum shop! The third section is a brief social history of the rum shop that shows how this peculiar Barbadian combination of bar and grocery evolved into what it is today. Finally, and most importantly, are featured some of those special rum shops that the reader will find more than worth a visit, as much for the tasty food as the refreshing drink. This is a fascinating and beautifully illustrated guide to a unique Caribbean institution which rum lovers all over the world are sure to enjoy.

Outdoors is a good place to be in the Caribbean. The scenery's good, the weather is even better. But best of all, outdoors, on the street, is where the really good food comes from. On sidewalks and balanced with great skill on heads and bicycles, street food is everywhere. No frills, no cutlery and no service charge; this is the food West Indians miss when they're far from home. If you're not afraid of missing out on the tourist brochure version (or of getting your hands dirty), here's a guide to eating your way across the islands.

"Vinos & viñedos del centro de México es un libro pensado, escrito, diseñado, editado y publicado de manera independiente, por nosotros mismos, sin clientes ni publicidad. Queremos hacer más libros así: en donde seamos los inventores, los autores y los editores. Idealmente, en unos años, nos gustaría tener solo este tipo de proyectos. En Sé, taller de ideas nos apasiona el diseño editorial, nos gusta viajar (¿a quién no?) y somos aficionados al vino. Así, este libro representa muy bien quiénes somos y qué tipo de ideas nos gusta desarrollar: proyectos donde participan distintas personas y donde podemos cuidar cada parte y detalle del proceso. Pensamos en Vinos & viñedos del centro de México más como una experiencia que como un producto". The author
